REFLECTIONS

Shadle Park High School endures. A haven from the storms of progress apparently. From the sophomore orientation con to graduation life is pretty well planned.

Classtime is filled with some of the same old stuff. Now and then a few originals if you're not awfully choosy. Exploring Jazz Rock, News Paper, Horticulture, and Bachelor Living, Shop, and of course P.E.

Angela,
I glad I love you in my U.S. History class

I know. Hope you are in my class next year. Have a fun summer.

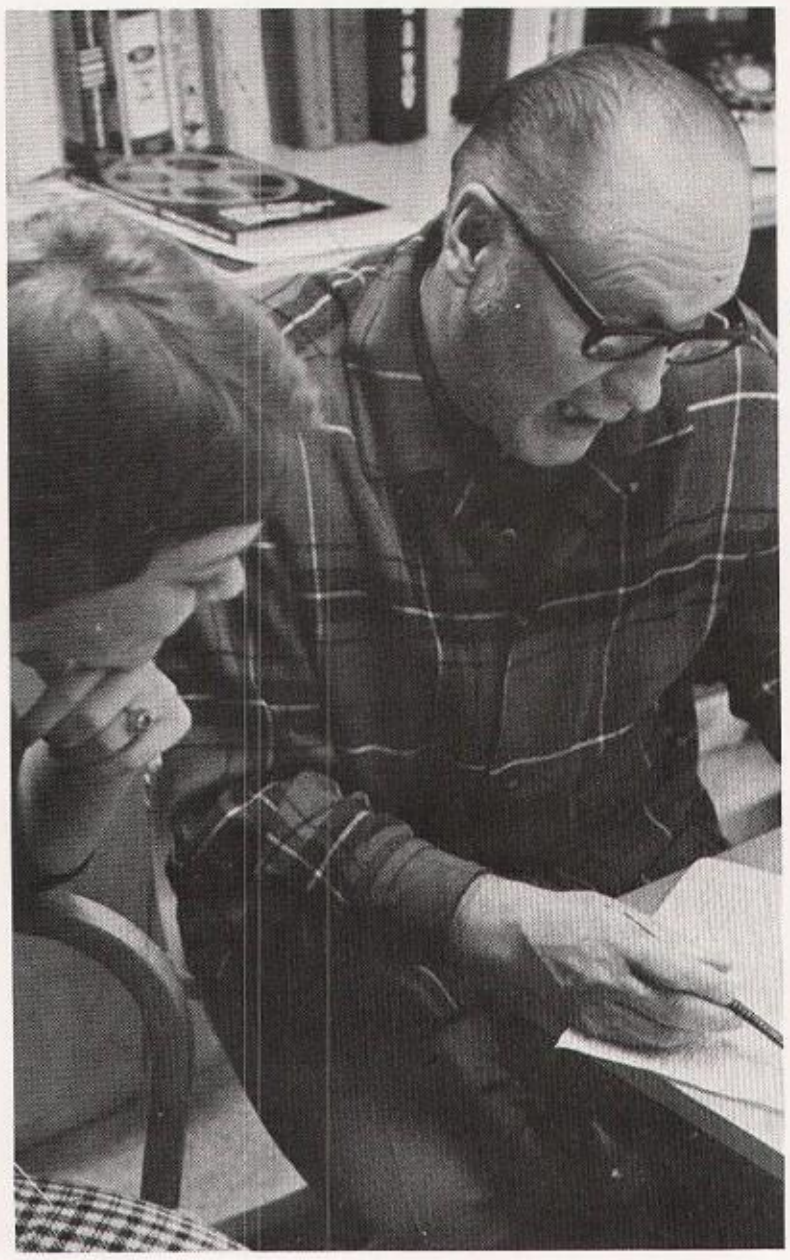
RECOLLECTIONS

Days are filled with Highlander Weeks, A.S.B.'s, Pep Cons, games and dances. If you stop and think about it you probably had alot of fun after that first couple of days was over.

On the TGIF weekends it was keggars at keggar flats (nobody knows about them of course). Or, if you really got daring, sneaking into State Line. Television, of course, was the last resort. Shaft, M.A.S.H., In Concert, and Kung Fu weren't bad.

Remember 1974? At Shadle things were pretty much the same.



Dear Angela,
It was great having you in U.S. History this year. I appreciate your good attitude toward learning. Continue to develop that super musical ability. See you next school year. Have a good summer. Sincerely,
Mr. Bell

REFLECTIONS

Shortages seemed to be in vogue during 73-74. A steak cost three bucks a pound. Gas was 45¢ a gallon. There was no wheat, meat, or trustworthy politicians.

An abundancy of fires and a shortage of water pretty well sums up the summer of '73. One week we almost lost Riverside State Park, the next our mighty radio stations.

Oh yeah, don't forget Watergate. Senators Sam Irvin and especially Howard Baker deemed themselves T.V. stars with their campaign practices investigation.

President Richard Nixon professed to be as dumb as Warren G. "Teapot" Harding "These guys are just some of my close and dearest friends." The truth will probably, well... at least to the best of my recollection never be known.

Not to be outdone V.P. Spiro Agnew became ex V.P. Spiro Agnew, Ted deserves some credit however (he did it for greed) But,,,, Ford had a better idea!!!!

A lot of changes have occurred around Spokane. All the buildings constructed to accomodate Xpo have further marred the city's skyline. But, what the heck, we aren't a seaport. And.... we got a new bridge.

Remember 1974? The year we lost the Lilac City.

RECOLLECTIONS

On August 11, 1973 some of us went to a garden party. Rick Nelson wasn't there, but, some heavy sounds in the person of Straightlace and California's El Chicano were. 12,000 people got off on 20 hours of music. History repeated itself with the Last Chance Sundance and Boogie Party. Buddy Miles and Sugarloaf led the list of performers.

Concerts were a rarity. Chicago and RareEarth were two of the best. Xpo is bringing in a few good acts.

In movieland "Last Tango In Paris", saw Marlon Brando get scalped. The new James Bond was a flop. "Sleuth", "A Touch Of Class", and "Dillinger" were worth the admission price. And (Lord willing) they closed the cover on the saga of the planet of the apes.

Those wonderful folks who gave you sauerkraut brought out the Volkswagen Sports Beetle. A $3,000. jazzed up waste of a grand.

Spokane's revamped Indians took the PCL championship in three games over the Tucson Toros. Hockey was big with the Jets and two NHL exhibition games. When the season was over Hammerin' Hank Aaron stood at 713 homeruns. Next time for sure! Ms. Billie Jean King put supermouth Bobby Riggs in his place with a 6-4, 6-3, 6-3 win. Oakland took the Mets in seven games to win their second series in two years.

Remember 1974? Diversionwise it was a very good year.

Angela,
You're a really
sweet and beautiful person. This year I didn't get to know you really well but next year I hope we can because I think you're a year still to be even more fun as you will

Tradition Lives On With Highlander Week

Every year the tradition lives on at Shadle High. Always, to get school off to an exciting start is the famous Highlander Week. The days in this week consist of Hi-Student, Hi-Lassie, Hi-Laddie, Hi-Teacher, and of course Hi-Henderson Days. Shadle Highlanders seem to have great fun during this week, especially on Hi-Laddie and Lassie Day. The strange sights you see in the halls on these days are always a constant amazement to people passing by. The week is brought to a great finish by the Highland Fling mixer, where the Friendliest Guy and Girl of each class are announced. The dance is highlighted with a visit by the Pipe Band.

AFS Student Marina Works Busy Schedule

1974's AFS student at Shadle is Marina Montemurro from Torino, Italy.

Besides her busy schedule of Humanities, Chemistry, Drama, French and Sociology, Marina is involved in Aqua Tartans. She enjoys going to football games and is interested in photography and all types of music. School is very different for Marina here. "In Italy," she said, "we go to school six days a week and there are no extra things like dances and sports."

Other differences that Marina cited were dances in Italy are slow folk dances, the food, steak being her favorite, the drinking age, there are no restrictions in Italy, 18 is the age to drive and 21 to vote.

Marina arrived in Spokane in August after a visit to New York, where she met with other AFS students and is now staying with Judy Howard, a junior, and her family.

Fall ASB Sponsors Student Faculty Variety Show

Sponsorship of the Student Faculty Benefit Variety Show and Student Exchange Program highlighted activities of the fall ASB.

Held December 3 in a con for the student body and an evening performance for the general public, the benefit variety show was one of the "biggies" of the Christmas season. The benefit was held to help pay for the medical expenses of a faculty member whose wife died of cancer. The show featured the cheerleaders, pipe band, school bands, and many individual student acts. An all male faculty belly dance and a vivacious female dance were the featured faculty acts.

Student Exchange Program is designed to let students visit other schools and to compare the different curriculums. Students from Shadle, N.C., L.C., Ferris, Marycliff, Rogers, Continuation, and Gonzaga Prep. participated.

Fall ASB officers included: President, Dan Flynn, Vice President, Jim Cane, Treasurer, Evan Howard, Secretary, Lisa Jones, and Fifth Executive, Darla Comstock.

Girls League Promotes Many Activities

Fall Girls' League Officers for 1973 were Jean Conley-President, Wendie Luders-Vice President, Nora Carlson-Secretary, and Maureen McDowell-Treasurer. Elected last spring, they served during the first semester of school. During their time in office they sponsored the Big-Little Sister Con before school, started, which got the new sophomore girls familiar with the various clubs and activities. Debbie Meir and Jolene Michelsen spoke at the Girls' State Con about their experiences at Girls' State. The Sadie Hawkins Dance was a great success with a vast participation in the costume contest. Other projects include the Dad-Daughter Dessert, a visit to Lakeland Village to take toys to the children and a Popcorn Ball sale in the commons before Christmas.

The first day of school dawned clear. We met and kicked around ideas. Some old friends, some new faces. All of us with a common purpose-SPORRAN. We began our work and from the beginning we had problems. Shouts of "Where the hecks a ruler." and yells of "Tom, come quick!" resounded through the halls from room 121. From rough drafts we watched a yearbook come to life. We've survived absences, sweat, tears, parties and even our deadlines. Our dreams slowly shaped into reality and we sat back and sighed. The past is gone, but in this book that you hold, a part of each of us remains forever.

This year changes were numerous in yearbook, after Pete Vanderwegen left us for Aberdeen, we received a new advisor, Mr. Neil Dressler. We changed our layout style from focal point to three column style. Our cover changed from art work to a photograph. But we stuck with our same editor who we've had for the last two years. Our printers once again used last year's book for a demonstrator and (God-willing) this one too.

HILITES Takes New Outlook In Reporting

Everyone was starting from scratch this year. Mr. Carl Crowe was first time adviser of the staff. There were lots of organizational problems in September. "As a group the staff was pretty good," says Lynne Thomas.

Having won the Columbia Press Association's first class ranking last year, the staff became more and more eager as the year progressed in maintaining the high standards of the HI LITES.

Around the Holidays the staff decided to give the paper a new outlook by reporting more community related activities in an effort to interest the students with their surroundings.

"Goal is to include activities of the student whose activities pertain more to the community rather than just school functions," says Bill Craze.

Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit

Getting more people involved and increasing school spirit was the main objective of the 1973-1974 varsity cheerleaders. Pep cons and signs were some of the methods used to promote football, basketball, and other various sports and activities.

Kayla Adams, Margaret Cassidy, Kathy Doughty, Debbie Duchow, Linda Distler, Jolene Míchelsen, and Lorilee Sherwood were chosen from 30 contestants last spring. Starting their cheerleading season, they attended a cheerleading camp at Ellensberg, Washington, where they learned many new cheers and met lots of neat people.

"Cheerleading is a great experience," says Margaret, "although sometimes it can be hard work and there are some problems, but you meet so many new people and you get so many new ideas that all the problems and troubles are worth it."

Acting Class Presents Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple"

The Acting class selected another Neil Simon play, "The Odd Couple", as their annual fall presentation. Carl Crowe, assisted by Ellen Hanson, directed the play which was written in the same humorous style as last year's "Star Spangled Girl".

Focusing on the first few weeks of Felix Unger's (Evan Howard) separation from his wife and his life after moving in with Oscar Madison (Tom Lathen) it tells how Felix slowly but surely begins to drive Oscar and his poker playing pals crazy with his nitpicking and perfectionist ways. The poker players include: Murray (Dale Lauber), Speed (Bob Thomas), Vinnie (Dave Zaccaria) and Roy (Darby Duchow).

Oscar finally decides that what Felix needs is female companionship, so he arranges a double date with the Pigeon sisters, Cecily and Gwendolyn (Karen Carlson and Jean Conley). The evening turns into a disaster; Oscar blames everything on Felix and ends up kicking him out. Felix goes to live with the sisters and everything, including the poker game, returns to normal.

Acting class members not performing in the play worked on the programs and props and the Art department designed and painted the sets.

Pops Concert Features Merrill Womack

Shadle's Seventeenth Annual Pops Concert took place November 8, 1973. Performing this year was Shadle's Orchestra, Jazz Lab Band, Chamber and Concert Choir, Treble Tempoes and the guest artist, Merrill Womack. A professional, he captured the audience with his powerful voice.

A change in the Music Department this year had Mrs. DeMond directing the choral groups, and Mr. Kornmeyer in the instrumental section. A concert such as this, gives the students an opportunity to work with a professional. The concert turned out to be a great success.

Above: Merrill Womack put on a truly magnificent performance. Here, he is featured with the Shadle Orchestra, doing a medley of the Carpenter's many hit tunes, which included Rainy Days and Mondays, For All We Know, and Close to You. Tough Breaks For Footballers Bring 3rd Place

This football season was one of great highlights and of low depression. Shadle students watched their team rise to a tie for first place with Gonzaga after defeating last years champions, Ferris by a score of 33-0. Then as the city league title was within sight, Shadle lost to Gonzaga leaving us with a 4-win, 2-loss season. Even though we still fought for the first place position, Shadle was thrown into last place by forfeiting the games they had won before that time. The forfeiture was due to an ineligible player, so Shadle had to forfeit all the games we had played in up to that time, leaving us with a disappointed team and a record of 1-5. But our team didn't stop there; Shadle's fighting young men went back out on the field and captured the 3rd place title. The Highlanders were given back it's forfeited games by league officials to give us a 5-4 season.

B-Squad Footballers Fight Bad Weather

Shadle's B Squad Football team, under the coaching of Mr. Jim Elvington, came in third place this year after a slow start.

Determination prevailed even in the last game as the team had to fight freezing temperatures and six inches of snow.

Some loyal Shadle fans were responsible for the clearing of the field.

C.C. Team Has Pride

Despite a 1-5 record, Coach Ron Kovick was pleased with the pride his cross country team had in the school, themselves, and the team.

Beating only Gonzaga this year, Coach Kovick feels that his teams will have outstanding seasons the next couple of years. He said that he believes any person who competes in athletics must have what he calls the 3-D's, dedication, determination, and desire.

Along with a few seniors, this years varsity squad included five sophomores and one junior. One of the seniors on the team, Steve Pilcher, went to state and finished 22 in the AAA class. Steve's time of 12:37 on the 2 ½ mile course was his personal best. He finished one second ahead of the top man in the AA class. Steve stated it was the hardest course he's ever run. The state meet took place at Evergreen High School in Seattle.

On November 20, the Fall Sports Awards Banquet was held. While Steve Pilcher was awarded "Most Valuable Runner", Steve Hurd was chosen by his cross country teammates to receive the Inspirational Award.

Netters Finish High

The B-Squad and Junior Varsity basketball teams both finished the season with exceptionally good records.

The B-Squad team had an overall record of 8-2. They took second place in the city, behind only Lewis and Clark. Jim Elvington, the B-Squad coach said, "It's hard to complain when you win 80% of your games, but we did not win the city championship, thus I feel we had an unsuccessful season in a successful year. There are some excellent players on this ball club and I enjoyed working with each and every one of them." Coach Elvington gave a rundown of some of the players as follows: "Rich Gilmore-an excellent defensive guard, quick and really hustles. Ray Schatz-excellent shooter, best shooting guard I've ever had. Scott Morris-a team hustler, doesn't believe in losing. Dan Meyer-great hustler, strong rebounder. Scott Michelson-good shooter for a wing man. Pat Shearer-good shooting guard. Bob Campeau-leading rebounder."

Some interesting season statistics show that Ray Schatz had a field goal percentage of .484 and scored 145 points for an average of 9.6 points per game. Dan Meyer made .689 percent of his free throws and Bob Campeau had 116 rebounds for an average of 7.7 rebounds per game.

The Junior Varsity team had an overall record of 15-5 and a league record of 12-3. They are the 1973-74 city league champs.

Administration / Faculty

Admit. Follows Procedures

Students come and they go their purpose in the office sometimes no one knows. It is your administrators who find out what they need, who find the answers or who sometimes restore your confidence with a happy look.

Our counselors Mrs. Olga Iverson juniors, Gary Leaver sophomores and Mrs. Verda Adams seniors, found themselves working with all the students this year. As class counselors they also found themselves advising their capable classes on money making projects, contests and service projects.

Mr. Wayne Chandler found himself working with students of all classes. Advising them on many varied subjects. Dean of Students is a name given to Miss Helen Cleveland last year. The name fits well as she spreads her abilities around to all the students at Shadle Park this year.

One new man entered Shadle's Administration. It was Ray Mohney the new asst. principal. Mr. Mohney had this to say about returning.

"How great it is to be back at Shadle Park High School, to be a part of the greatest of all schools means a great deal to me. I consider myself extremely fortunate."

Office Staff; Librarians, Are Dedicated Individuals

Lenore Haight, Shadle Park's head librarian had this to say about this years activities regarding our library and resource center. "The Shadle Park High School library is an essential element in the school program. The basic purpose of the school library is nearly identical with the basic prupose of the school itself. It is, therefore, a strong supporting component of the total educational program, and endeavors to provide materials and needed services that will enrich and support the curriculum." The library proved to be a very needed tool this year here at Shadle.

Transformed To Knowledge

This year, the Language Department of Shadle Park High School offered Humanities, English, and five foreign Languages to its students.

Humanities was characterized by the reading of such novels as HAMLET, OEDIPUS, HUCKLEBERRY FINN, and JULIUS CAESAR. Several outside speakers were also presented as well as an occasional field trip.

English offered students the practice of speaking and writing skills, and the Juniors had a Vocational and Career Unit in which a notebook was prepared.

Enrollment in Foreign Languages jumped up from the previous year, and Spanish appeared to be the most popular, followed by German and French.

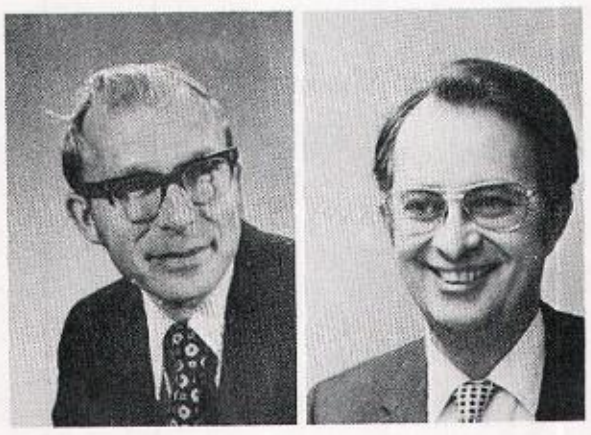
Humanities envolves group discussions ranging from lectures to new concepts in audio-visual materials.

Sociology and Psychology are also taught and can be taken by juniors and seniors.

Frank Windishar handles the PICI class.



Science Has Something For Everybody

This years enrollment is about average to previous years, according to Mr. Joe Heslin, in the science department.

There is only one new class, which isn't exactly new; it's just new in format. Horticulture is this year being given as a vocational course to aid students in jobs like gardening, working in Greenhouse's, and the like. It is a two year course, this being the first year! Other classes offered are old classes with new names, such as Space Science and Astronomy, and Heat, Light, and Sound for physics. Then there are the old standbys such as chemistry, biology, oceanography, paleobiology, and human biology. In other words there is a class for just about everybody. Even Michael Landon's?

Business Education Booms This Year

Many students are trying to improve their occupational skills by enrolling in a Business Education class. There is a wide variety of specific classes to choose from, such as Typing, Stenography, Business Machines, DECA, and CO-OP. DECA and CO-OP are great opportunities for seniors because they provide them with jobs. Or at least, they TRY to provide the seniors with jobs. Probably the most common Business Ed. class is typing. Many students will appear in a typing class every day and type until their fingers hurt. But they don't ever seem to quit because typing is a skill that will always prove useful. There is a lot to be gained in Business Education classes. Every class teaches a special skill which will come in handy when you are looking for a job, which is probably why so many students enrolled in Business Ed. classes this year. What better reason could there be?

Distributive Education Clubs of America, commonly known as DECA, sponsors a large number of activities throughout the year. A good example of DECA's many activities would be the ring sale, which is held in the fall, and the snack stand, which is open periods one through four. There is always a cluster of students at the snack stand. Like those in the picture above, they come for a quick pick-me-up before continuing with the rest of their classes.

Math Dept. Teaches Basic Logical Skills

Mr. Eacker is head of the Math department and has this to say about it. "Realizing the importance of mathematics in our changing world, the Mathematics Department feels a great responsibility. Our aim is to teach students to think logically as well as to acquire basic mathematical skills essential for further study of math and science.

Although we prepare students to continue their math education in college, in recent years we have also emphasized mathematics for the non-college-bound as well. As a result several classes have been originated, such as Consumer Math, Industrial Math, and Adventures in Math. In the fall semester our Senior Math classes reached an all-time peak enrollment of over 230 students.

Regardless of the course, more important than the accumlation of knowledge is the development of an appreciation for that subject so that students will have the desire to further their mathematical education in preparation for the future where math is a must."

Home Ec. Dept. Offers Equal Opportunities

Mrs. Sawyer's cooking class is shown as they prepare to fix a mid morning snack, which is in fact one of their class assignments.

Child Development and Tailoring are just two of the many classes that are offered by Shadle's Home Economics Department, designed to prepare students for tomorrow's world of homemaking for young adults.

Laddies in aprons . . . not kilts? Well, maybe not, but the changing of life styles is quite evident when one looks at the ever increasing number of guys enrolling in the various Home Economics program.

Whether it's an all girl class, which is now becoming more and more a rare sight, or a course exclusively for guys, such as Bachelor Living, or even a coed Social Relations class, new ideas are being formed that may one day change the whole outlook concerning the role of a homemaker.

In a time of spiraling prices and low incomes, courses teaching the value of a dollar is of most importance to every individual and is of value in its lesson of how to get the most for what you spend.

Fine Arts Aim For Perfection

Art is a basic means of communication here at Shadle. Art shows up everywhere, from the Spirit signs in the hall to the sets for the play. The art department shines through. Art includes everything from Floral design to jewlery. The average student and artist find art a value as it enriches working lives as well as leisure. These elements of art are the basis of instruction for all Shadle Students.

Music department underwent a change this year. With the retirement of Mr. John Harris, Mr. Kornmeyer moved to the spot of instrumental director and we got a new vocal director, Mrs. Demond. But music was strong this year from half-time at Albi to Pops Concert with Merill Womach. Perfection is the name of the game and this they have shown.

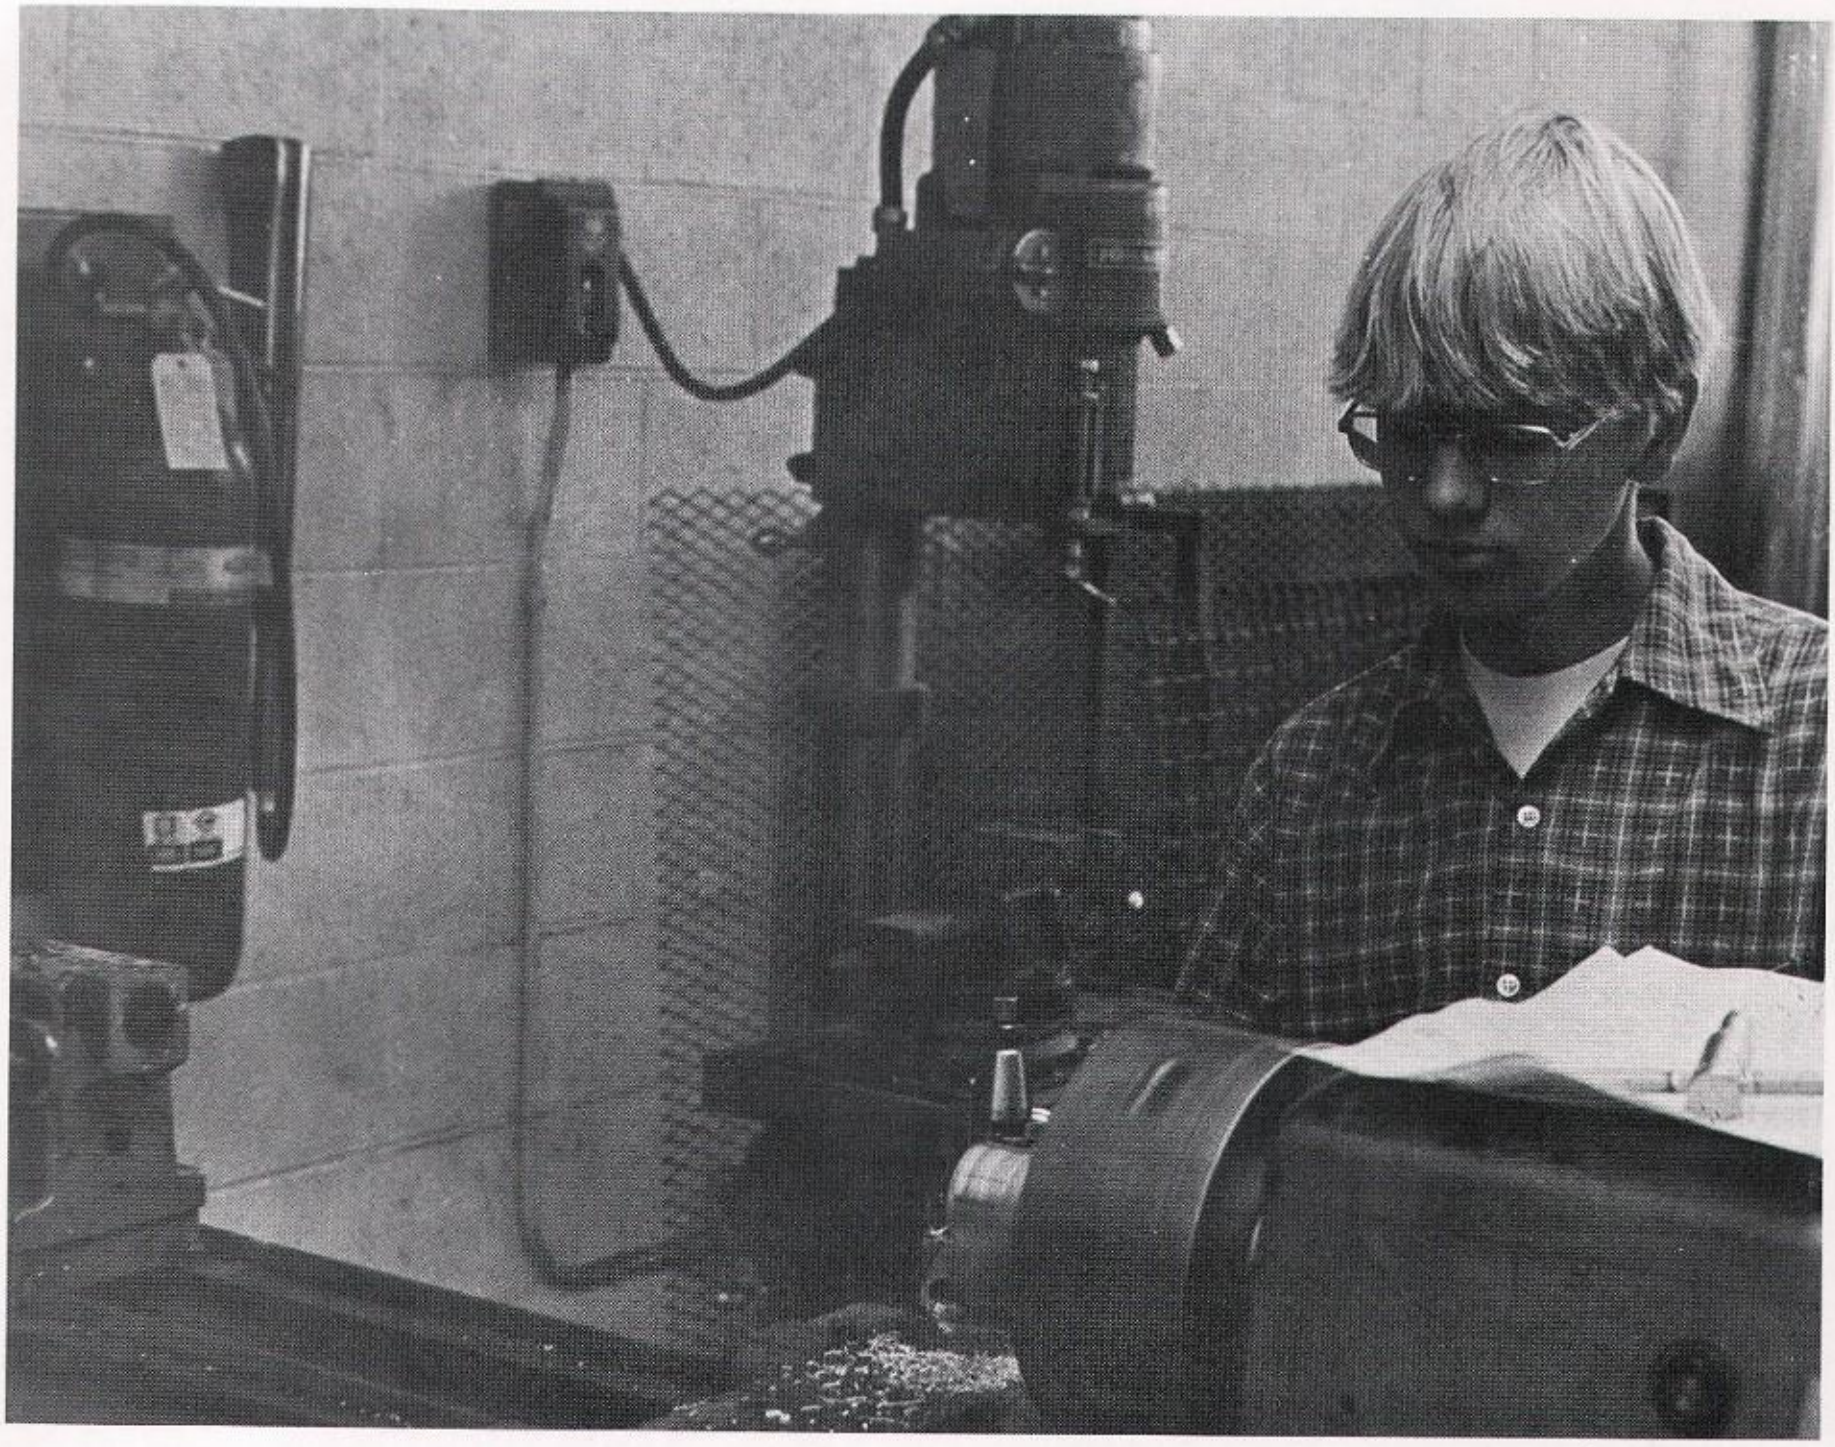
Industrial Arts, Preparation For The Future



Developing skills and preparing for a career are the aims of the industrial arts department. This department offers various courses for the manually orientated and mechanically minded students aid. After a boy's project is perfected by the aid of modern tools and equipment it assumes a practical purpose. These courses inspire creativity that will be beneficial at home and through out life.

P.E. Varies Classes Offered

Advanced Physical Education sees another very good year in all classes offered like, scuba-diving, swimming, skiing, and hockey. This program is enjoyed by many juniors and seniors. All classes, which are separated into three, four and six week quarters, are open to all juniors and seniors. The girls have some classes that aren't offered for boys and the other way around.

Coach Robert Morris is the Department Head and makes the big decisions or has the last say about our P.E. classes. He also teaches volley-ball and bowling. Coach Gary Davis found his time in the P.E. Department mostly taken up by football and baseball, and a very popular sport called volley-ball. Changing the pace was Coach James Brown teaching Health, Clyde Combs and Coach Lyle Pugh taught their own classes that were enjoyed by many. Mr. Combs taught swimming and had a lot of variety in the pool. Mr. Pugh found himself in the wrestling room quite a bit teaching wrestling and gymnastics. Mrs. Charlotte Jones coached girls golf and volley-ball and Hi-Lassies.

Traffic Safety Education found its way back into a busy schedule this year. Students that took T.S.E. were sent through three different types of courses, the simulator, the theory classes and driving in the new cars provided by the school district. Both semesters were completely filled.

Cooks, Custodians Perform Many Duties

Above: the cooks take a quick break from their busy schedule to line up for a quick candid in the kitchen where most of their day is spent.

Cooking up a storm in the school kitchen is just an ordinary routine for Shadle's cafeteria workers, cooks as they are much more commonly referred to here at school.

Five days a week, the cooks supply hungry students with a hot and nutrious lunch, or serve them a cold snack at the snackline.

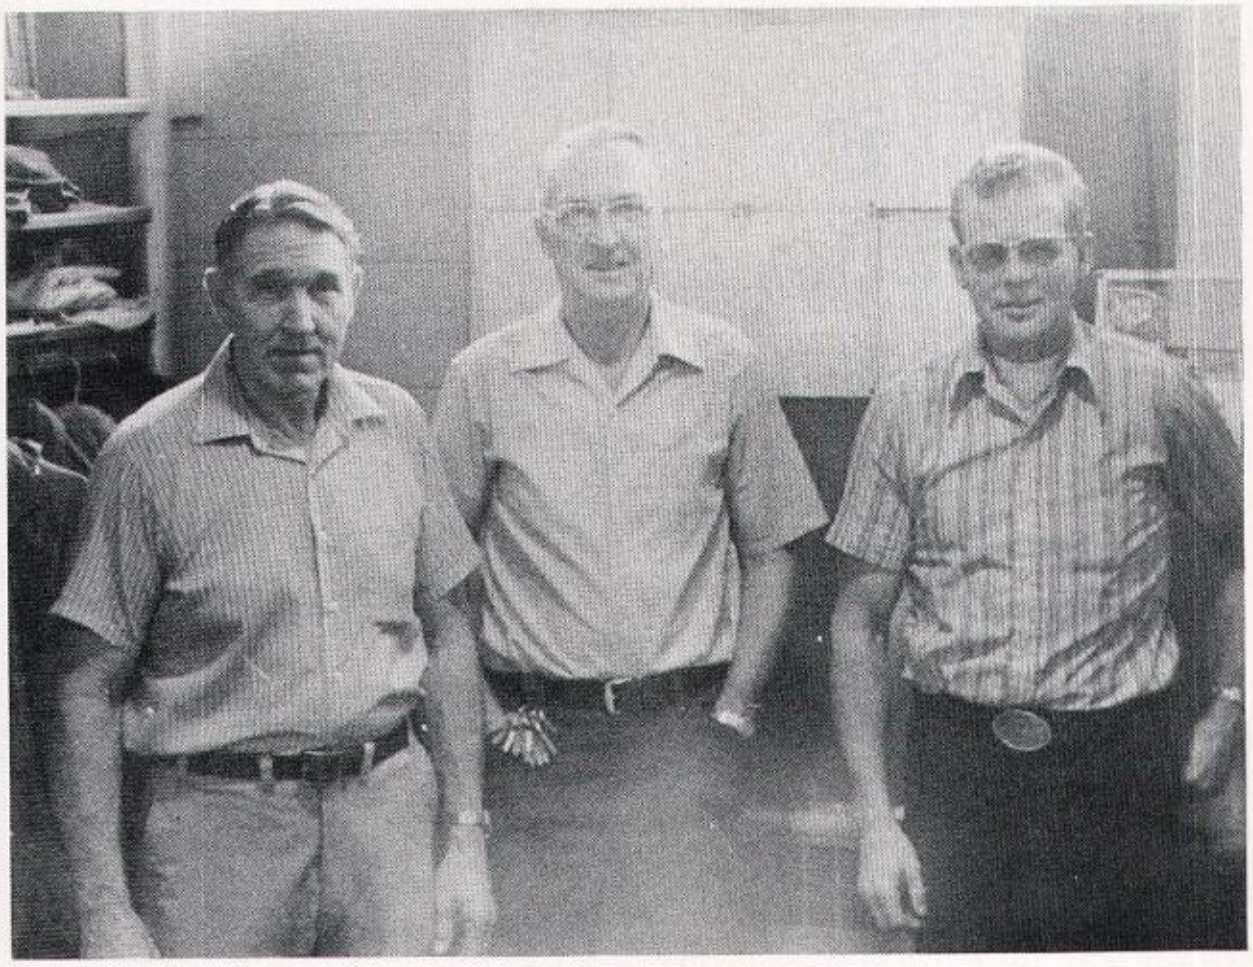
Much of the cooks time is spent during the first four periods of the day, preparing the foods for the lunch time meal. The morning snackline gives many students who don't eat breakfast at home, a chance to grab a quick pick-me-up, serving cookies and rolls and beverages to nibble on.

Shadle's cooks are not only responsible for preparing and serving the meals, they also form the kitchen clean up crew.

Speaking of the clean up crew, let's not forget our own school custodians, or if you prefer, Shadle's janitors.

Duties of a custodian are many and often vary due to the circumstances of the day. Most often, however, their jobs include picking up the trash left strung out in the cafeteria after lunch, washing windows, sweeping, and mopping the classrooms and hallways. In general, the custodians are responsible for the care of the school and cleaning up after the people who inhabit the building nine months a year.

Below; the cooks are busy cleaning up the kitchen, their work room, after the noon lunch hour is all over.



Once again, head custodian and night time engineer are pictured, this time accompanied by co-worker, Mr. Roland Helton.

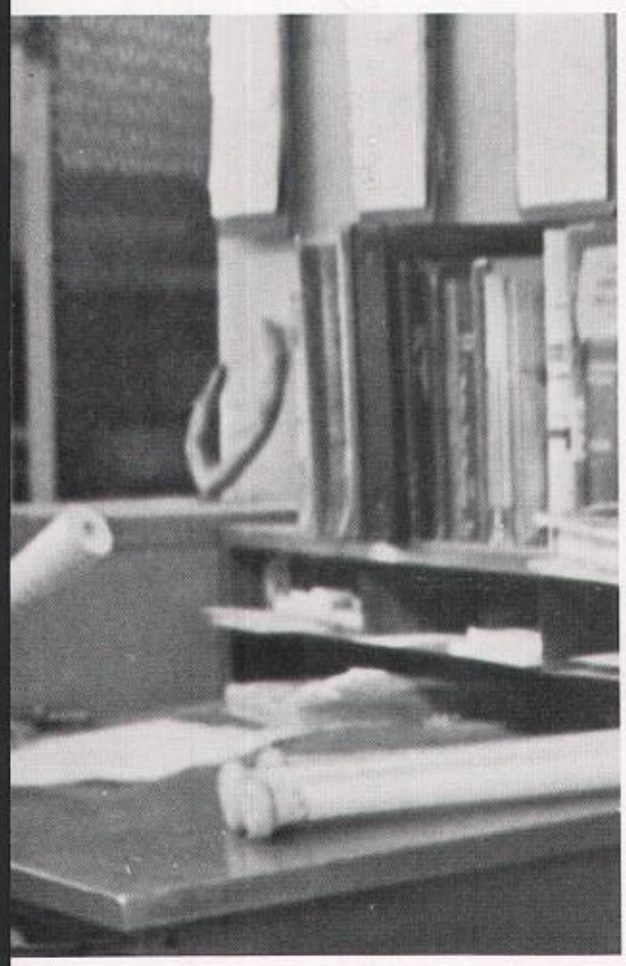
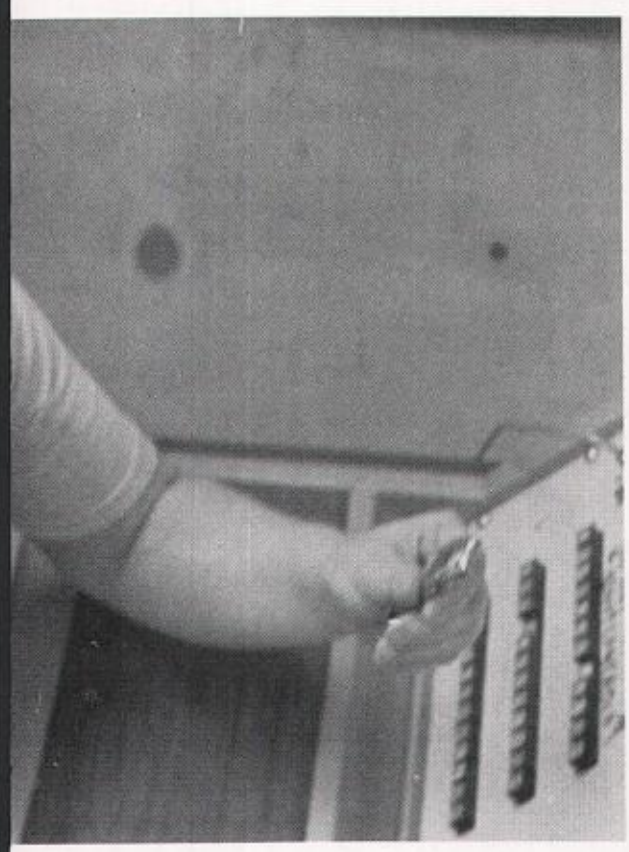
Sophomores Examine Many New Things In High School





The class of '76 got a good start this year. They wrote their class constitution in Humanities 10. They elected their class officers in late November.

The class started building up their treasury with money making projects, like taking inventories for Fashion Fabrics and making one hundred dollars each of the three times they did it. They had a baby picture contest where they put up baby pictures of the faculty and let kids guess which teacher matched which picture. They also served refreshments at the play "Mame." They had a car wash in the faculty parking lot in the spring and also had a bottle drive to raise money for the treasury.

Juniors Sponsor Paper Drive, Prom

This year was a very good year for the Spirit of 75. It consisted of a prom, a paper drive, and a pre-college test in the spring. It was a hard working year. We were told that if we didn't get our rears in gear and raise some money, we wouldn't have a prom. So we had a mixer, a bake sale, and a paper drive that went on forever. We raised the money and we had our prom. Boy, did we have a prom!

In our sophomore year, we were known as being the most organized sophomore class in the history of Shadle Park. We were also one of the most spirited ones. Our junior year didn't change our reputation any. We supported our teams with fighting spirit. We sponsored another serpantine. Only this time, most of us drove.

We had a lot to do this year and a lot to learn. Next year we'll be seniors and then who knows what will become of us. So the English department had us do a vocations paper, so the chances of us winding up in the welfare line would be a little bit slimmer. Now we have some idea about college and all that other fun stuff.

So here we are. So this is our junior year. And when it's over many of us will look back on it with a lot of fond memories. Some of us will look back with some frustration. But we will all remember 1974 in one way or another. Maybe we will remember it as the year that Ferris didn't come in first in football. Maybe we will remember it as the year we almost lost our lunch hour. Maybe we will remember it as the year that was. But we surely will remember it.

Next year, while we are busy being seniors we might look back and say, "Aw, it wasn't so bad."

Our junior year was both fun and frustrating. And once it's over, it will seem like a dream. It was a very good year.

Well, one more year to go & then we'll be out of each other's hair in homeroom! (Just kidding). Orchestra gets better every year, since we get better, especially me, my technique is so good. I am really glad to know someone as nice and talented as you are, Angie! Have a supa summea!
Love,
BARB

12 Years Of Work, Dedication Ended May 29 For Seniors

Commencement on May 29 was the end and the beginning . . . the end of 12 years in the school system, including 3 productive years at Shadle Park, and the beginning of our adult experience. For some it was a welcome relief, and for others it was the end of something special.

The Senior Luncheon was our last chance to break bread together, and we must have broken a record number of loaves at the Davenport. The Prom captured all the romance of the Senior Year. Some of the couples even dated back to the Jr. Prom and before. The Lilac Coronation was the most exciting and lucrative of our class projects. As usual, Shadle had a stage full of attractive candidates. Our licorice sales turned a record number of tongues red, making a tidy profit for the Senior Class.

Were the commencements of Expo '74 and the Class of '74 merely a happy coincidence or a prophecy of great accomplishments to come?

Angela,
I can't promise anything today, in my present condition, but I'll try. Just stay cool and keep your head together and you'll make it. I've got to go cause I have it all together. Just take care and thanks for putting up with me in typing. Keep your feet on the ground and keep looking for the light.

Angela—
I can't believe the fun we have together or the great times we've had together that are memories I will treasure. I know some that we always keep in touch. Best of luck to an extremely talented and sweet girl who deserves the very best of everything in life.
Love always,
Joan

Angela,
You're a really sweet & talented person - I'm glad
I have - & you as a friend & hope we can continue to be friends. I hope you keep on playing your cello because you're really good & hope to see you do great things next year.
Love, Jill Fowler

Angela,
I can't believe that we only have a few days left in school. Can you believe we're almost done with a whole year of Chemistry
It's been fun getting to know you better this year and I hope that next year we'll have an even better chance to get to know each other.
Irene

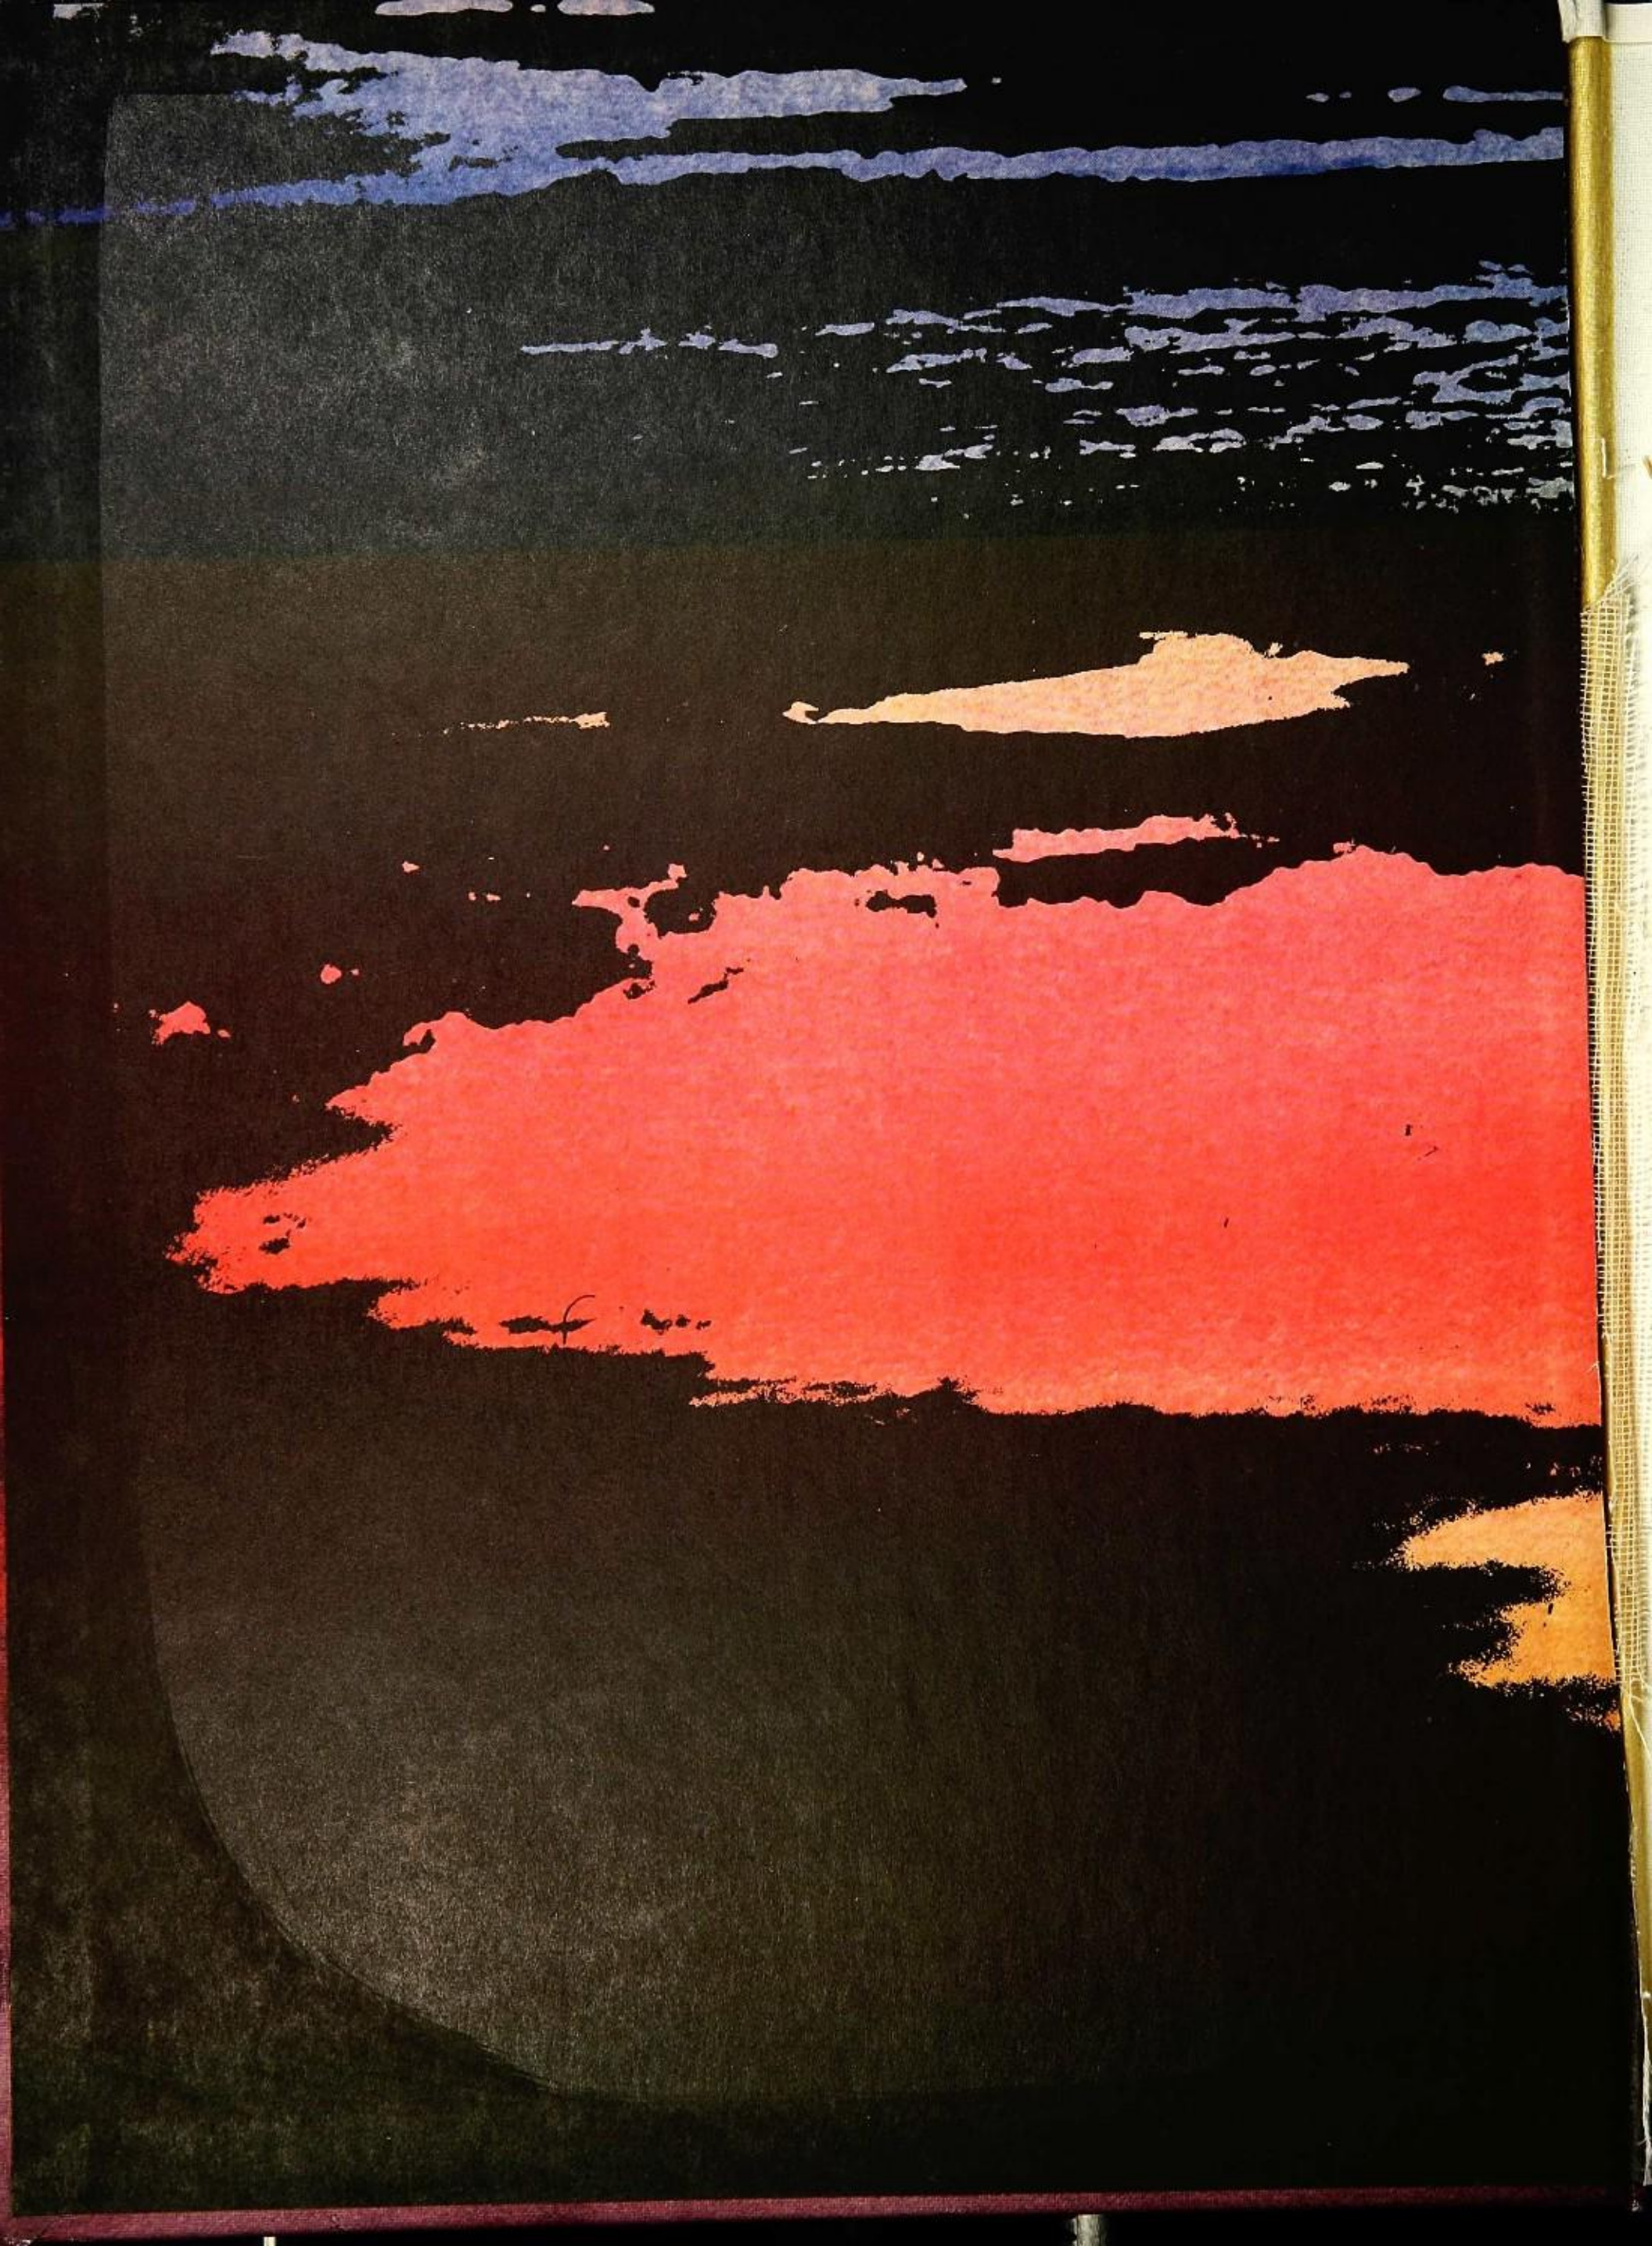
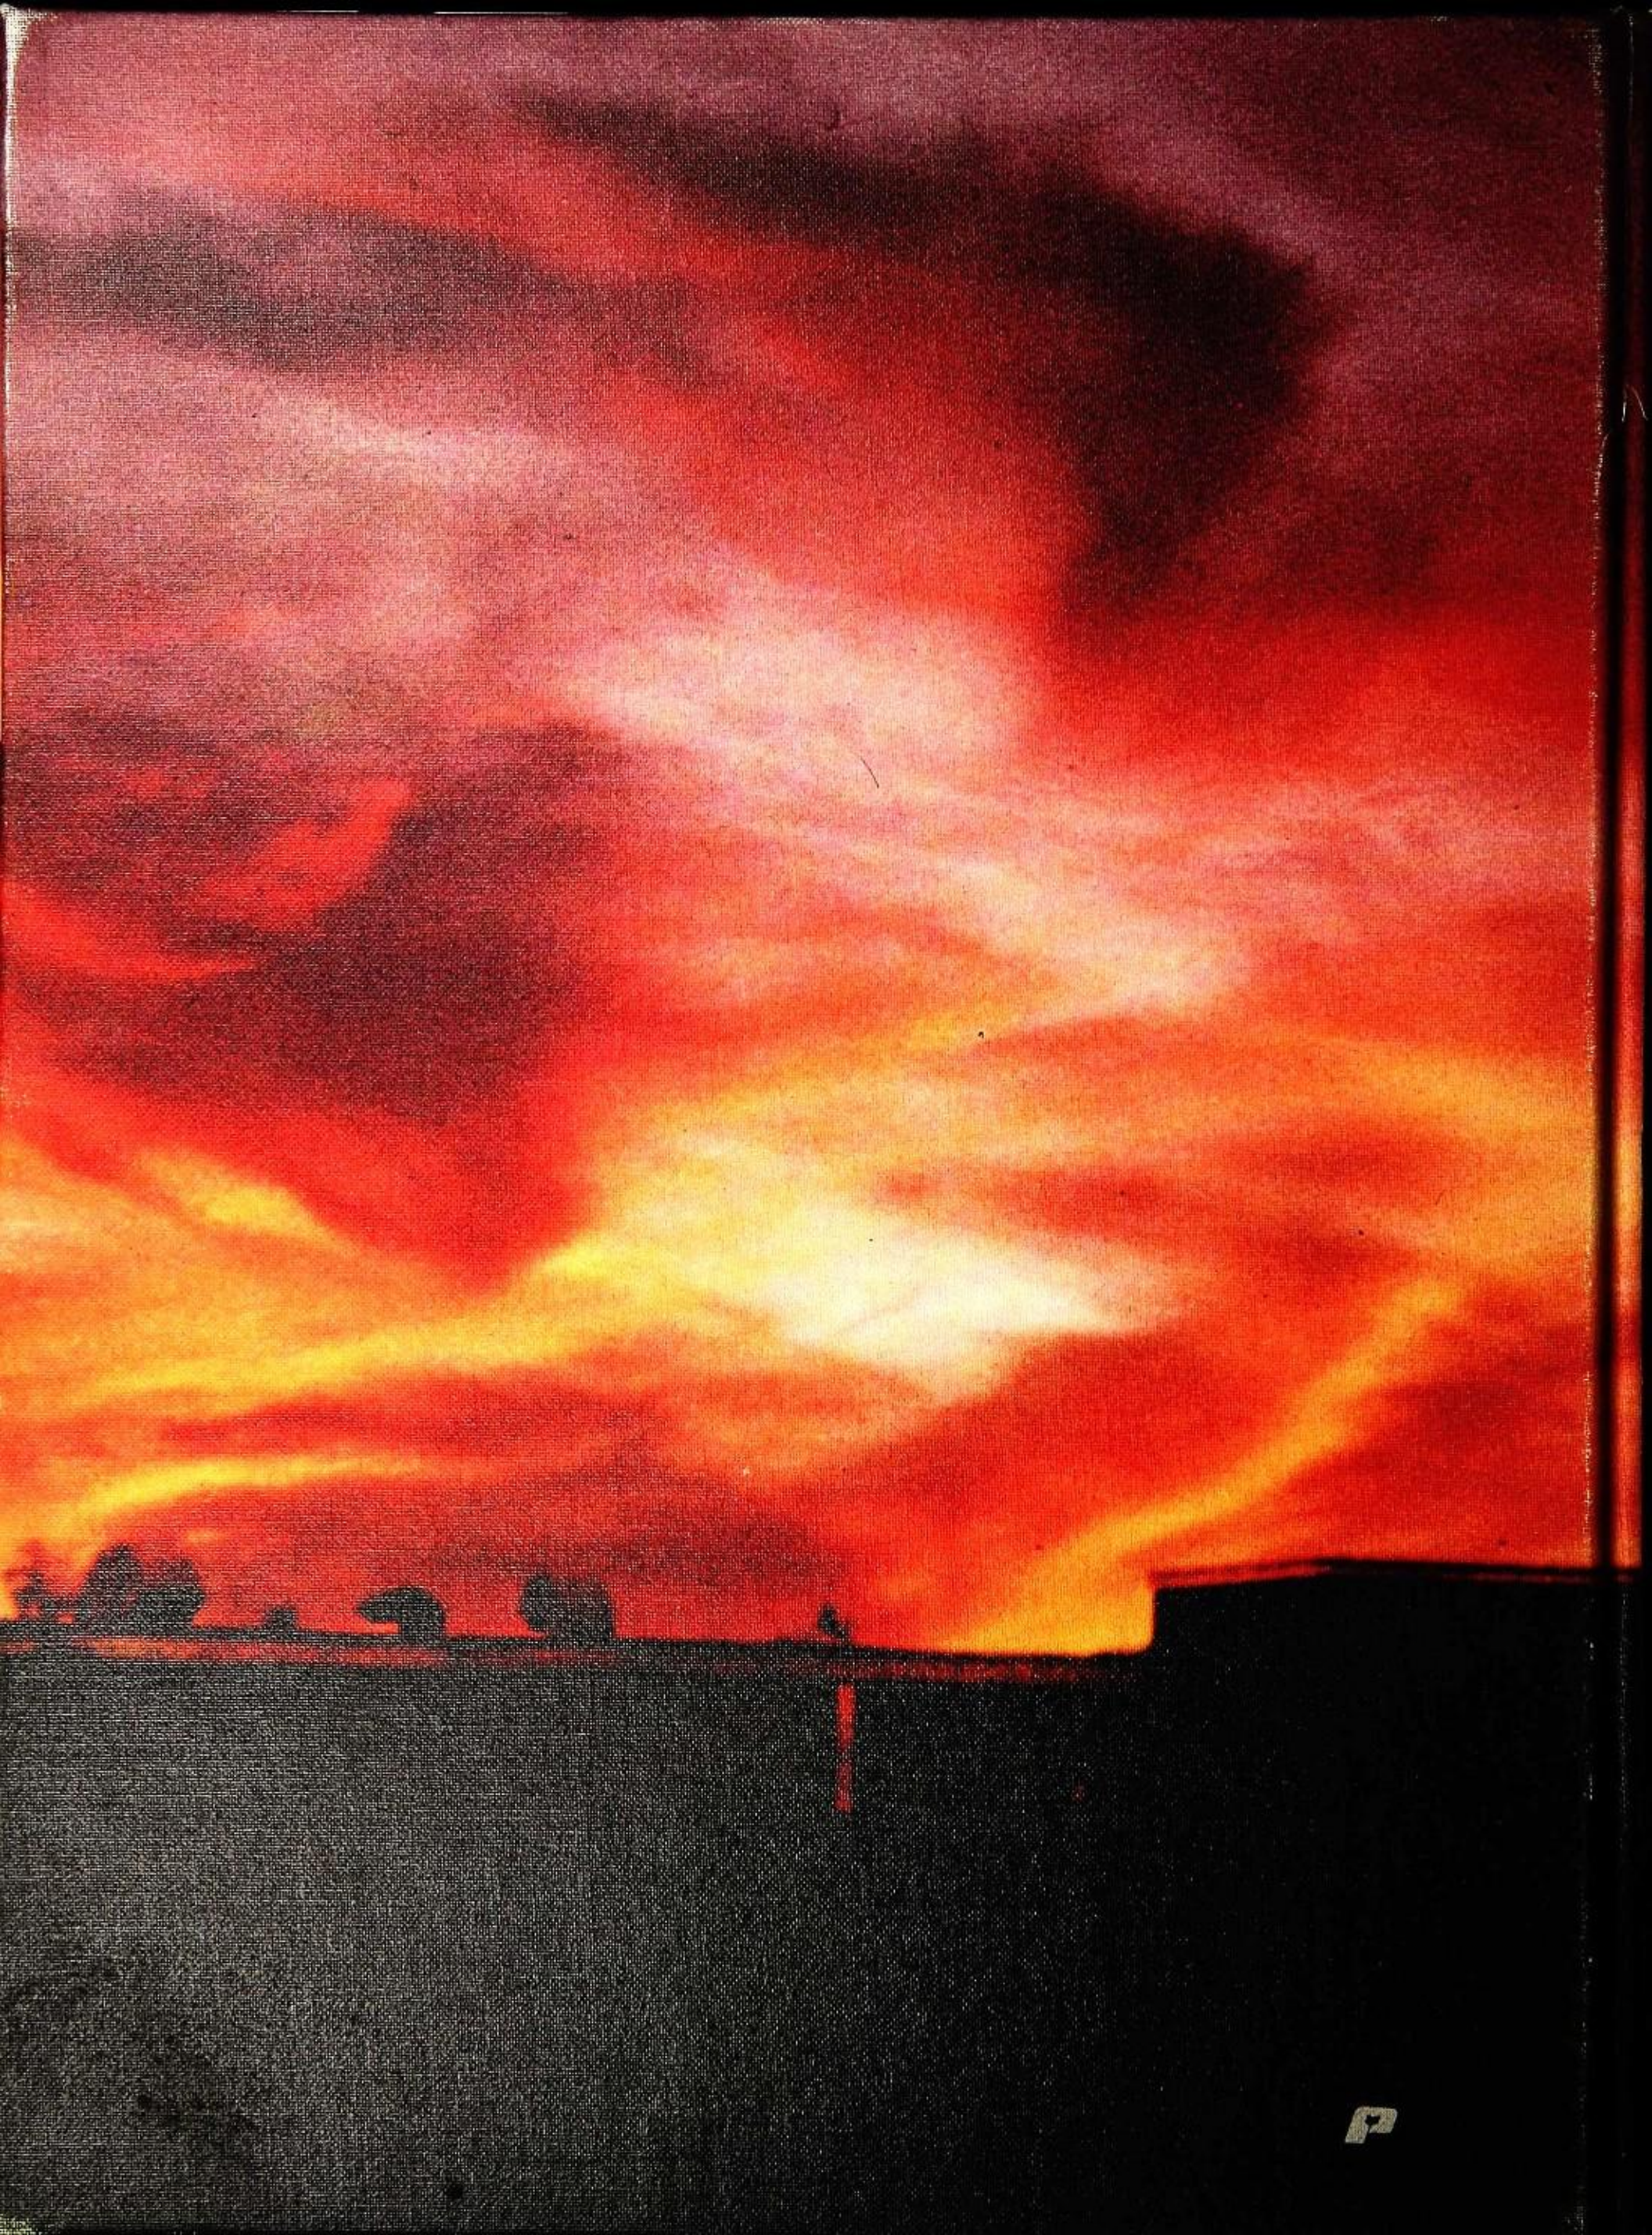
Angela,

I can't believe that we only have a year to go. We have made it through Junior High & most of Senior High together. It's been fun being with you and I'm sorry for the times I wasn't there for you & I'm sorry for sometimes I wasn't always there, but I still consider you a friend & I pray for you every night. I have appreciated the times we've had together & this year and I see some of your friends before my eyes graduate. I'm glad I was given the opportunity to be your friend & I hope you will keep in touch & I pray for God's Luck in your future endeavors.




My Love,
Missing
